

Beer Aquatic

Engage in marine science at the pub, last Thursday of the month at the Hobart Brewing Company.

<https://www.facebook.com/beeraquatic>

Birdlife Tasmania

Birdlife Tasmania host a range of activities, from a program of regular informal birding excursions, through meetings with high quality guest speakers, to long-term scientific observations.

<https://birdlife.org.au/groups/birdlife-tasmania>

Bruny Island Environmental Network

The Bruny Island Environment Network Inc. is a network of individuals and groups with an interest in the conservation of the natural resources and biodiversity of Bruny Island.

<https://www.bien.org.au>

Circular Economy Network Tasmania

Reaching across our cities into regional and rural Tasmania, through community, business, industry, and technology, Circular Economy Network Tasmania believe they can create new conversations and collaborations that can build a circular economy that defines who we aspire to be and which is the envy of others.

<https://www.circulareconomytasmania.com.au>

Clarence Climate Action

Clarence Climate Actions is a local community group working towards positive climate solutions operating within the Clarence municipality.

<https://clarenceclimateaction.org>

Devil Robotics

Devil Robotics is a volunteer-led organisation that runs after-school robotics activities for grade 5-12 students. Their objective is to inspire young people to be leaders and innovators in the fields of science, technology, engineering and mathematics. They aim to foster skills in resilience, communication, teamwork, problem-solving, and critical thinking.

<https://devilrobotics.com>

Education for Sustainability Tasmania

Education for Sustainability Tasmania growing network of leaders in sustainability research, training and education who aim to harness the full potential of learning to help more people develop the skills and capacity needed to protect our planet and ensure social and cultural prosperity for all.

<https://www.facebook.com/EducationForSustainabilityTasmania>

Enterprising Women Tasmania

The Enterprising Women program is designed to support and empower Australian women aged 18+ to create self-made career paths, pursue entrepreneurship as a viable career choice and to ensure Australian businesswomen have the skills required to run their own businesses and transform the industries in which they work.

<https://enterprising-women.com.au>

Friends of Sandy Bay Rivulet

Friends of Sandy Bay Rivulet aims to conserve, restore, improve and celebrate the cultural, social, ecological and environmental values of the Sandy Bay Rivulet and its environs.

<http://www.fosbr.org.au>

Hobart Hackerspace

Hobart Hackerspace Inc. is a community workshop dedicated to technology and art. It is a place where people with common interests in computers, technology, science, digital art or electronic art, can come together to meet, socialise and collaborate.

<https://hobarthackerspace.org.au>

Tasmanian Field Naturalist Club

We encourage the study of all aspects of natural history and advocate the conservation of our natural heritage.

<https://www.tasfieldnats.org.au>

Tasmanian Game Makers

Tas Game Makers (TasGM) is a community of Tasmanians that see making games as part of their lives. Encompassing everyone from students, hobbyists, support service providers, and jam-only makers, through to remote AAA studio staff living in this wonderful state we call home.

<https://tasgamemakers.com>

Young Tassie Scientist

The Young Tassie Scientists program helps early career researchers and professionals who are passionate about their work to connect with the Tasmanian community in a variety of ways.

<https://youngtassiescientists.com>